

Academic Publishing

【conducted in English】

May 21 (Thu), 2026
4:00–6:00p.m.

【Target Audience】 Uzushio Scholars,
Tokushima University Graduate
Students (Master's & Doctoral)
【Style】 English・Online
(Zoom meeting)

In this seminar, we will provide tips on everything from the basics you need to know to how submitted papers are reviewed, how to respond to referee feedback to secure acceptance, and key points to keep in mind when communicating with reviewers. We will also cover general academic writing tips on how to write clearly and effectively to increase your chances of acceptance, as well as the mindset needed to become a skilled writer—including the process from planning to revising and finalizing your manuscript. We hope you will join us.

内容

Academic Publishing

- Academic Paper vs. Degree Thesis
- Journal Paper or Conference Proceedings?
- Choosing the “right” journal for you
- Issues of Ethics
(conflicts of interest, coauthor vs. acknowledged contributors, human/animal treatment, plagiarism, falsification, double/multiple-submission)
- What is a good abstract? Why is it important?
- Your cover letter matters! How to write it effectively
- Communicating with Editors and Reviewers/Referees

2 時間

Academic Writing: 10 Little Pieces of Advice to Supercharge Your Writing

Becoming an Effective Writer

- Key Planning Stages: Goal – Significance – Outline
- Strengthening Results Comparisons (Prof. Aickelin)
- Consistency at Different Levels
- Starting the Drafting Work
- Awareness of Writer's Client
- Choosing Type/Number of References
- Revising & Finishing Work
- Personal Characteristics of a Good Writer

講師

Ron Read, Human Academy Co., Ltd.

Has been involved in establishing organizations and serving as a secretary for numerous academic societies and secretariats. At the Institute of Electronics, Information and Communication Engineers (IEICE), he also served as a paper quality evaluator. Currently serves as a seminar/lecture presenter, mentor, and columnist for multiple societies including the Information Processing Society of Japan. Serves as an advisor for the Academic English Society.

申込・問合せ

Deadline: May 1 (Fri)
5:00 p.m.

<https://forms.cloud.microsoft/r/rw5z48Bs1B?origin=IprLink>

Research & Industry-Academia Collaboration
Division, Seminar Coordinator
Phone: 088-615-2355 (Extension: 81-7405)
E-mail: ksenkik@tokushima-u.ac.jp

■ Organizer
Tokushima University Interdisciplinary Next Generation Researcher Development Program
(Uzushio Program)
■ Co-organizers
Regional Collaboration Platform for Opening the Future (HIRAKU)(the FLAGS Program)
World-Class Researcher Development through Regional Collaboration (HIRAKU-Global)

